

Kamala Dickson Is a young Leader from Tanzania dedicated to promote global peace and sustainability, Current member of UNOCT's Working Group of Youth, Sports and Preventing violent extremism, Head of Pan-Africanism, Sports, Arts, Culture & Heritage Cluster, former Chair of SADC Youth Parliament Committee, A member of Generation Democracy, Climate Justice Activist, Global Youth Ambassador, Peace Ambassador, Sustainable Development Goal Ambassador and Active concerned Citizen. He is an Young Leader Initiative award-winning. Kamala Participated in the United Nations Union Sports Council Youth Forum in Accra Ghana through UNOCT'S Global Sports Programme alongside 20 other young Leaders from 19 countries but also He is Africa Center of Strategic Studies Alumni

He holds leadership positions with several youth- led regional and international organizations and currently Works with Agenda Participation Initiative (API) a non-governmental organization in Tanzania dedicated and working to promote accountable governance for service delivery and advocating for democratic governance in Tanzania.

Kamala is a former East Africa community Youth ambassador (EAC-YAP), has facilitated and was involved in several youths led processes at the East Africa community and Africa union, he is a campaigner and strong advocate for the African Youth, as he is working hard to see Tanzania had a free National youth council and formation of East Africa community youth council as a platform for young people to champion on economic and political affairs, Gender inclusion, As a younger leader in Tanzania kamala contested for East Africa Community Legislative Assembly member of Parliament and He also Participated in different Nations Elections as election Observer

ACTIVISM

He uses online platforms to train young people to utilize and use technology and innovation as a part of income generation and awareness creation on youth participation in the decision making process. He trains youth on using internet & technology for advocacy campaigning He has participated in different online Campaigns that has lead for community change, One of the component in leadership is to seek change and currently technology has provided a platform for us to use internet to change the formalities and push for Development Agenda, He is among social media influencer in East Africa among of campaigns he has participated is on CV/PVE, Peace campaigns, Leadership(EAC and AU) and climate change , with more than 35k followers on twitter its an opportunity to reach the majority youth and voiceless

He also serves as Global Youth Ambassador where he championed on better education systems includes everyone children should have right to free education even those leaving in peripheral, Education infrastructure should be friendly for all, He believes on youth as national engine for development and He is Young Leaders Forum (YLF) alumni Leadership program Under FES Tanzania. He participated in Global Peace Leadership Conference 2018 in Uganda Representing Tanzania Youth and as part of the media team and other Youth Lead events.

“Organize, don't agonize”

“Amandla”