

BIOGRAPHY OF ADVOCATE TIKE MWAMBIPILE

Ms. Tike Mwambipile is the Executive Director of the Tanzania Women Lawyers association. She obtained her LLB (Hons) and MBA in Tanzania. She also holds a post graduate diploma in economic diplomacy.

Adv. Tike has 17 years' experience in different filed including women and children rights, legal and human rights issues, gender, health (SRH&R) programme development and management, fundraising and donor relations, gender governance, research and advocacy, facilitation and documentations. Tike has worked with civil society organizations at grass roots, national and international level. She possesses excellent skills in leadership, training, research, fundraising and organization management. Excellent written and oral communication skills complement her direct hand- on – approach.

Tike has also conducted numerous law research with a view to influence policy and legislative review in promotion of women, children and youth rights. She is stout supporter of women, children and youth reflected in the works she has done within the country and at international level. She has always stood in solidarity by the poor by spending most of her time in the field mingling and working with poor and marginalized women and children.

She has served in various boards and council of various organization in different capacities such as: Honorary secretary of Tanzania Gender Accountability (current), Chairperson of Sand for Her Land Campaign - S4HL(Current), Chairperson of Tanzania End Child Marriage Network - TECMN (Current), Secretary of the executive council of Tanzania Women Lawyers Association and Board Member of Tanzania Human Right Defenders (2012-2015). Through engagement with the government in 2018 she was appointed by the Ministry of land to sit in the National Land Advisory Council from 2018 to 2021.