PRE-TRAVEL CHECKLIST HEALTH

If you are traveling from abroad, there is a need to check with the Tanzania's High Commission or Embassy in your country of residence. All visitors to Tanzania must be aware that no cases of monkey pox have been reported within the country but extreme caution must be taken for both the visitors and the citizens of Tanzania, for more information. Please visit www.moh.go.tz. Please also make sure you have your yellow fever card ready for inspection if you are arriving from a destination with high incidences of the disease.

SHUTTLING FROM THE AIRPORT

Traveling from the airport to your hotel should be easy. Dar es Salaam has plenty of airport taxis available. Please also note that some of the hotels offer airport shuttle services. You may want to check with your hotel if the shuttle service is available for your arrival date. You may alternatively call for Bolt or Farasi services through your mobile for transportation. The Julius Nyerere International airport has free Wi-Fi that you can use to search for a ride. Most taxi drivers understand English perfectly well, however, if you are unsure, you can let your driver speak directly to the staff of the hotel or lodge you are planning to stay in.

VISAS

Any foreign national who is eligible for a Tanzania visa is also eligible for a visa on arrival. However, it is recommended to apply for a visa before visiting Tanzania. If you are traveling from elsewhere will need to check with Tanzania's High Commissions or Embassies in your country of residence.

BUREAU DE CHANGE

You can get your money changed easily at very competitive rates at the Julius Nyerere International Airport's bureau de change or any of the banks there. You can also do so in the city center by visiting any of the major banks or one of the Bureau de change spots around the city. Please visit the Bank of Tanzania's website for prevailing exchange rates of the day. As an update the Bureau de Change of Tanzania has permitted all international authorized hotel to facilitate the exchange of currency.

COMMUTING IN DAR ES SALAAM

For convenience and safety reasons, we encourage you to exclusively use Taxis or Bolt/ Farasi rides whenever possible and avoid public commutes. Dar es Salaam's traffic is heavy during peak hours, a word of advice is that you plan to leave your hotel for the venue early enough to make up for the traffic jams. Traffic jams are heavier on Saturdays than on Sundays. You can tour around more efficiently on Sundays, however, do take note that some shops may not open at all on Sundays.

WEATHER

The Dar es Salaam weather is normally warm throughout the year; however, May, June, and July are cooler. August weather should be moderate but please plan to carry a light jacket or sweater especially if you plan to go out in the evenings. The rain season ends in April or early May; however, light showers may happen in August as well.

TOURISM

Zanzibar

Zanzibar is an insular autonomous region of Tanzania. It is composed of the Zanzibar Archipelago in the Indian Ocean, 25–50 kilometers (16–31 mi) off the coast of the mainland, and consists of many small islands and two large ones: Unguja (the main island, referred to informally as Zanzibar) and Pemba Island. The capital is Zanzibar City, located on the island of Unguja. Its historic center, Stone Town, is a World Heritage Site. Please plan to visit this historic site while in Dar es Salaam

MOUNTAIN KILIMANJARO

Please also plan to visit Tanzania's Mount Kilimanjaro National Park. This park hosts Africa's highest peak, freely standing at 5,895 metres above sea level. The park is located in the northern Tanzania's town of Moshi in the Kilimanjaro region. Please visit www.kilimanjaroparktanzania.com for booking details.

MIKUMI NATIONAL PARK

Also highly recommended is the Mikumi national park which is Tanzania's fourth-biggest national park. It's additionally the most open and easily reachable from Dar es Salaam. With confirmed wild life sightings, it makes a perfect safari goal for those who are in Dar es Salaam for the International Quality Education Conference and have less time to travel, two days or more can get you an opportunity to explore the splendor of Mikumi National Park. For booking information, kindly scan the code to visit the Tanzania Tourism Board for further information.

SERENGETI: Home to the great migration

Please plan to visit Tanzania's hottest tourism sites before or after the International Quality Education Conference this time around. Did you know that the Serengeti is the only place where you can witness millions of migrating wildebeest over the Acacia plains, it's the cradle of human life, and probably the closest to an untouched African wilderness you will ever get: welcome to Serengeti National Park. Where time seems to stand still, despite the thousands of animals constantly on the move. For booking and additional information, please write to info@serengeti.com. You can also browse www.serengeti.com for further information.

Ngorongoro Conservation Area

As a UNESCO World Heritage site in Tanzania, Ngorongoro spans approximately 8,292 square kilometers and includes the Ngorongoro Crater, the world's largest intact volcanic caldera at 19 kilometers in diameter. It's renowned for diverse wildlife and cultural significance. Visit <https://www.ncaa.go.tz/> for more details.

TRAVEL DAR ES SALAAM

Dar es Salaam is Tanzania's biggest city and is the commercial port located on Tanzania's Indian Ocean coast. The city grew from a fishing village and the name has a literal meaning in Arabic, that translates to 'The harbor of Peace'. It's currently a home to over 6 million people and has an approximate area of 1,590 square Km. The Askari Monument pictured is an historic landmark of the city. The cast bronze Askari Monument is supposedly located in the precise center of Dar es Salaam in the middle of the roundabout that bisects the famous Samora Avenue and the Maktaba Street. Also in the picture is the Bongoyo Island located off the coast of Dar es Salaam. Bongoyo Island is an uninhabited island in Tanzania, situated 2.5 km north of the country's largest city, Dar es Salaam. It is the most frequently visited of the four islands of the Dar es Salaam Marine Reserve and a popular daytrip for both tourists and Tanzanian residents alike for snorkeling and sunbathing. On the right, is an artistic work popularly known as Tinga Tinga. The artistic movement began with Edward Said Tingatinga and the style is characterized by extremely bright colors and cartoon imaginative figures. Please plan to browse around and buy any art you like. There are plenty of other tourist attractions namely; the Coco Beach, National Museum, Azania Lutheran Church, St. Joseph's Catholic Cathedral, Mbudya Island etc..
